Society for Vocational Psychology ~ 10th Biennial Conference

"Forging Career Policy for the Greater Good"

November 5th and 6th, 2011 | Boston University, Boston, Massachusetts

We invite and encourage you to submit a poster proposal for presentation at the 10th Biennial Conference of the Society for Vocational Psychology. Poster sessions provide an excellent forum for all participants, including researchers, practitioners and students, to present their work in a relaxed and interactive setting. We welcome proposals that address topics that reflect the diverse interests of our SVP members, students, and affiliates.

The conference theme is responsive to the fact that federal policies in the United States and in many countries around the world do not contain language related to the need to provide access to quality career development services. While organizations and policy makers want to use our research to create policy recommendations, we need to be willing to more effectively understand what types of evidence is needed to support these recommendations. The purpose of our conference theme - Forging Career Policy for the Greater Good - is to create a conversation and common understanding about these issues by bringing together a broad range of career development researchers, policy experts, and graduate students.

The poster session(s) will provide the opportunity to showcase the latest research of our SVP members, students, and affiliates.

Submission Instructions: Electronic submissions with attachments in Microsoft Word or PDF formats or are preferred. Submissions via U.S. mail are also acceptable. Proposals must include the following information:

- Author name(s) and institutional affiliation(s)
- Corresponding author name, address, telephone, and e-mail address
- Title of poster (10 words or less)
- Summary of the content to be presented (500 words or less)

Closing Date: Poster proposals must be received via e-mail by July 15, 2011. Individuals will be notified with a decision about their proposals by August 15, 2011.

Send completed submissions to: svp@bu.edu
