Collaborative Programming with Division 17, APA Programming ............... 68
Good day, colleagues!

It is my pleasure to present the 2014 Division 17, Society of Counseling Psychology, programming for APA’s 122nd annual convention. The SCP convention theme is “Counseling Psychology in Action: Conversations, Collaborations, and Commitments to Change”. SCP’s 2014 Program Chair, Rosemary Phelps, ably assisted by the 2015 Program Chair, Amy Reynolds, spent countless hours over the fall and early winter to bring our program together. I am pleased with the result; I hope you are, too.

This year, APA initiated a new program category: collaborative programming. These programs were selected by an APA Central Programming review committee, and are co-sponsored by two or three Divisions. The intent of the change is to create a leaner convention, encouraging attendees to attend more common programming while lessening the frustration of too many overlapping programs in the same time slots. SCP is a partner on 13 of these collaborative programs this year. Another 10 SCP programs have been approved as CE sessions. Add to this all of the other SCP-sponsored poster sessions, symposia and roundtable discussions and you have an impressive line-up! Check them out and plan your schedule accordingly!

Please don’t overlook these high-profile SCP programs when you are reviewing the schedule. The Leona Tyler Award is SCP’s most prestigious honor; this year, Steven Brown will give the Invited Address at 1:00 PM Thursday in the Convention Center RM. 159. On Friday, join us from 2-4 PM in the Convention Center Rm. 146A to hear the presentations of the newest SCP Fellows. Then, on Saturday please join me for the Presidential Address, followed by the SCP business meeting, from 2-4 PM in the Renaissance Ballroom East. We also have two social hours, on Thursday from 5-6 in the Marriott Marquis Liberty Salons L and M, and on Saturday from 4-6 PM in the Renaissance Grand Ballroom North. I look forward to seeing you at one or more of these events.

The SCP Hospitality Space Schedule, under the organization of Sue Lease and Anthony Isacco, is also attached here. This year we are using the Mount Vernon Place United Methodist Church, near the convention center, along with the SCP Presidential Suite in the Renaissance Washington DC Hotel. Offerings include Section business meetings, ECP and student mentoring sessions, and a variety of networking opportunities. Take a glance; there is something for everyone in this schedule!

We have collaborated to bring you one fantastic program, and we look forward to sharing our collaboration with you in August.

Sharon L. Bowman, PhD.,
SCP President

Collaborative Programs
13 Collaborative Programs Accepted for APA Convention!

Society of Counseling Psychology members collaborated with other APA divisions to plan programs for APA Convention this year. Thirteen programs involving SCP were accepted by the Central Programming Group and will be presented this August in Washington, D.C. Rosemary Phelps, this year's Program Chair, is to be commended for her work in coordinating these plus our regular division programs. Next year’s themes for collaborative programs will be announced this summer, with proposals due at the beginning of October. Our 2015 Program Chair, Amy Reynolds, has already begun to plan with other divisions, and we encourage you to consider developing your own collaborative proposal with colleagues across divisions. All of the APA collaborative programs by theme are listed here: http://apa.org/convention/programming/collaborative/index.aspx

See you in D.C.!
